

Thank you for consigning with 529.Kids.Consign. Before we can help you reduce-reuse-recycle your children's and maternity clothing, please read our consignment agreement closely, and then sign and transmit this Agreement back to us. If you have any questions about this Agreement, please email us at: Questions@529KidsConsign.com.

A. Clean and fresh

The clothing you consign needs to be from a smoke-free and mothball-free environment. All consigned items need to be in good condition, laundered, dustless, spot-free and folded/packaged neatly when shipped to us. We will carefully examine merchandise for tears and/or stains. We maintain high aesthetic and practical standards; therefore if an item does not meet our standards we reserve the right not to sell that item. If this is the case, we will notify you, and give you the option to take it back, or we will donate it for you and provide you a receipt for your personal tax purposes. We are not experts in the safety of apparel or gear, and we do not repair items, so please do not provide us with anything if you have any reason to believe that it could be unsafe for our customers.

C. How it Works

1. Accounts

Once you return the signed Consignment Agreement to us, we will set up an account in your name, with the address you provide us below. Each piece that you provide, that we decide to consign, is given an item number. When we sell one of your items, your account receives a credit for 40% of the selling price. Read below (section C. 3) for how that credit later becomes cash to you. We will market your item for consignment for the length of the respective article's season. For example, the Consignment Period for puffy coats ends before Spring; and little swimsuits are taken off the site to make room for back-to-school clothes in Autumn.

2. Pricing

We reserve the sole right to set the prices on the consigned articles. Generally, we look at comparative items, and based on condition we price accordingly. Markdowns/discounts may be taken at our discretion during the consignment period. We reserve the right to hold merchandise to be sure we are selling it during the right season.

3. Cashing Out

Our consignment agreement offers a 40%-60% split where you as the consignor will receive 40% of your total sales. We have a 3 month consignment period and issue checks at the end of our quarter: February, May, August, and November. We will not reimburse any costs of packaging, insurance or shipment. Please make sure you notify us of any address/phone number/email changes as soon as possible. We are not responsible for bounced emails or checks unable to be delivered because of an old address.

4. Charity

We maintain high standards. If an item does not meet our standards, we reserve the right not to sell that item. The item can be returned at the request and expense of the consignor. If an item does not sell within the 3 month consignment period, upon consignor request, 529.Kids.Consign will pull items to return to the consignor or will donate said items. 529.Kids.Consign donates items at the end of the Consignment Period to the ALIVE! Charity, an Alexandria, Virginia charity which helps families get on their feet after life circumstances have set them back. We will be happy to email you a donation slip for your taxes upon request.

5. Liability

529.Kids.Consign does NOT assume responsibility nor do we reimburse consignor for loss or damage due to fire, theft or for any other reason. All risk of ownership of consigned items shall stay with the consignor. 529.Kids.Consign does not make any warranties or representations about the safety or suitability of items consigned. 529.Kids.Consign has no experience or expertise in manufacturing, repairing, or inspecting merchandise for safety, ease of use, or fitness for a particular purpose and therefore disclaims any responsibility for recalls, defective merchandise, or safe usage for any purpose.

6. Updates and Changes

529.Kids.Consign reserves the right to alter this policy at any time. It is the consignor's responsibility to check the current agreement on our website for any updates (www.529KidsConsign.com).

7. Other Legal Stuff

This Consignment Agreement is the full written and complete agreement between 529.Kids.Consign and the Consignor. Any amendments, additions, or modifications to this Agreement must be in writing and signed by both parties in a fashion indicating that both parties know they are making a change to these terms (i.e. don't infer anything from an email signature). This agreement shall be governed by the law of the Commonwealth of Virginia, no matter where the Consignor resides.
